"Biographical Briefing on Thomas Hobbes." In Western Europe in the Modern World. Teachers' Curriculum.

This is a secondary source as it is a biography on Hobbes, but includes direct quote from the words of Hobbes' book the Leviathan. I believe this source to be credible in that it is from a credible teaching resource, the Teachers' Curriculum Institute. This source provided me with information about Hobbes' view on human nature and a quote supporting his views on human's being bad.

Njus, Elliot. "2 Teens Arrested after Portland Fire Vehicle, 1 Other Damaged by Rocks Thrown from Overpass." OregonLive, March 11, 2015. Accessed March 11, 2015.

http://www.oregonlive.com/portland/index.ssf/2015/03/portland_fire_vehicle

This is a secondary source as this is a newspaper story written about an event that happened earlier in the week. This article appears to be non-bias, it is a reliable source as it is from a well known local newspaper, the Oregonian. The Oregonian is known to have a conservative bias, but this is not a political article. I used this news story as evidence for two teenagers being arrested after two vehicles were struck by rocks thrown from a Northeast Portland overpass by them.
