Student Rights and Responsibilities

Students shall be expected to comply with the law, with the policies and regulations of the district and the rules of the school attended, pursue the curriculum prescribed and to follow the authority of the school staff. Student conduct will respect the property rights and privileges of others and an understanding for the need for cooperation among all members of the school community. Students shall have all rights to which they are entitled as delineated in the handbooks of each individual building as well as the following:

1. Civil rights — including the rights to equal educational opportunity and freedom from discrimination; the responsibility not to discriminate against others;
2. The right to attend free public schools; the responsibility to attend school regularly and to observe school rules essential for permitting others to learn at school;
3. The right to due process of law with respect to suspension, expulsion and decisions which the student believes injure his/her rights;
4. The right to free inquiry and expression; the responsibility to observe reasonable rules regarding these rights;
5. The right to privacy, which includes privacy with respect to the student’s education records.

Students have the right to know the behavior standards expected of them as well as to know the consequences of their behavior. Students’ rights and responsibilities, including standards of conduct, will be made available to students, their parents and employees through information distributed annually.
